

RESONANCES CHAMBER MUSIC ACADEMY

Resonances Chamber Music Academy

9-15 April 2018

Château de Halloy, Ciney,
Belgium

Masterclasses:
Philippe Graffin
Elisabeth Kufferath
Tony Nijs
Amy Norrington
Martijn Vink

The new Resonances Academy was inspired by the enthusiasm of the masterclasses during the Festival Resonances which takes place in Chateau de Halloy each May. We decided to create a place and opportunity in Belgium for students to get to know some of the great masterpieces of the chamber music repertoire on a profound level, guided by a few experienced musicians. The young musicians will immerse themselves in the repertoire for a week and have plenty of moments to perform their pieces at the end of the week.

It will be a chance to meet and play with many different people from all over Europe in different formations and to be lead by internationally renowned chamber musicians who will join them in some groups and rehearse alongside them.

The course will take place at Chateau de Halloy near Ciney in Belgium, where we will all stay together.

Places are limited: 20 students/young professionals will be offered places for the course. Students will play in at least 2 groups, one of which will be a string quartet.

There is the option of coming with a self-formed group, but the players in this group should also be open to play with others in different formations as well.

At the end of the week, there will be several concerts and opportunities to perform.

Fee: 550 euros
Includes: masterclasses, all meals and accommodation in Chateau Halloy.
<http://chateauhalloy.be/en/>

All applicants should write an email including a short biography to:
amynorrington@festival-resonances.be

Application deadline: 1st January 2018.